To all and singular, to whom these presents shall come, Greeting.

Whereas a certain Treaty between the United States and the Creek Nation of Indians was concluded and signed near Fort Wilkinson on the Oconee River, on the Sixteenth day of June last past, which Treaty is as follows:—

Treaty of Limits between The United States of America and The Creek Nation of Indians.

Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States of America, by James Wilkinson of the State of Maryland, Brigadier General in the Army of the United States, Benjamin Hawkins of North Carolina and Andrew Pickens of South Carolina, Commissioners plenipotentiary of the United States on the one part, and the Kings, Chiefs, Head-Men and Warriors of the Creek Nation in Council assembled on the other part, have entered into the following articles and conditions: viz:

[XV] Article 1st The Kings, Chiefs, Head-Men and Warriors of the Creek Nation, in behalf of the said Nation, do by these Presents cede to the United States of America, all that Tract and Tracts of Land, situate, lying and being within and between the following Bounds, and the Lines and Limits of the extinguished claims of the said Nation; heretofore ascertained and established by Treaty: That is to say - Beginning at the upper extremity of the High Shoals of the Appalachian River, the same being a Branch of the Oconee River, and on the southern bank of the same - Running thence a direct course to a noted ford of the South - Branch of Little River, called by the Indians Chatto, chucco hatchee, - thence a direct line to the main Branch of Commissioners Creek, where the same is intersected by the path leading from the Rock-Landing to the Ocmulgee old Towns; thence a direct line to Palmetto Creek, where the same is intersected by the Uchee path, leading from the Oconee to the Ocmulgee River; thence down the Middle Waters of the said Creek to -

to Oconee River, and with the western bank of the same to its junction with the Ocmulgee River, thence across the Ocmulgee River to the south bank of the Altamaha River, and down the same at low-water mark, to the lower bank of Goose Creek, and from thence by a direct line to the Mounts, on the margin of the Okefinoche Swamp, raised and established by the Commissioners of the United States and Spain at the Head of the St. Mary's River; thence down the middle waters of the said River, to the Point when the old Line of Demarcation strikes the same, thence with the said Old Line to the Altamaha River and up the same to Goose Creek. And the said Kings, Chiefs, Head-Men and Warriors do relinquish and quit claim to the United States all their Right, Title, Interests and Intentions in and to the Tract & Tracts of land within and between the Bounds and Limits aforesaid forever.

Article 2nd The Commissioners of the United States, for and in consideration of the foregoing concession on the part of the Creek Nation, and in full satisfaction for the same, do hereby covenant and agree with the said Nation, in behalf of the United States, that the said States shall pay to the said Nation, annually and every year the sum of three thousand dollars, & one thousand dollars for the term of Ten years, to the chiefs who administer the Government agreeably to a Certificate under the hands and seals of the Commissioners of the United States of this Date, and also twenty five thousand dollars in the manner and form following: viz: Ten thousand dollars in goods and merchandize, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged: Ten thousand dollars to satisfy certain Debts

Debts due from Indians and white Persons of the Creek Country to the Factory of the United States; The said debts after the payment aforesaid, to become the Right and Property of the Creek Nation, and to be recovered for their use in such way and manner as the President of the United States may think proper to direct. — Five thousand dollars to satisfy claims for property taken by Individuals of the said Nation from the Ci: tizens of the United States, subsequent to the Treaty of Colecain, which has been or may be claimed and established agreeably to the provisions of the act for regulating Trade and Intercourse with the Indian tribes and to preserve peace on the frontier; And it is further agreed that the United States shall furnish to the said Nation two Sets of Black smiths Tools, and Men to work them for the term of three years.

Article 3^d It is agreed by the contracting Parties, that the Gar: rison or Garrisons which may be found necessary for the protection of the frontiers, shall be established upon the land of the Indians at such place or places as the President of the United States, may think proper to direct, in the manner and on the terms established by the Treaty of Colecain

Article 4th The contracting Parties to their presents do agree that this Treaty shall become obligatory and of full effect, so soon as the same shall be ratified by the President of the United States of America, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof

It

In testimony whereof the Commissioners plenipotentiary of the United States, and The Kings Chiefs Head-men and Warriors of the Creek Nation have hereunto subscribed their Names and affixed their Seals at the Camp of the Commissioners of the United States near Fort Wilkinson on the Oconee River this sixteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two, and of the Independence of the United States the twenty sixth.
